THE CONFERENCE VISION:

Saeed Abdulrahman Tawawgozi, whose penname is Ma'doomi, is known as a poet. Although he is a well-known Kurdish poet, he is also a well-established religious and knowledgeable scholar who has many books in fields of belief and speech in Arabic and Persian languages. Many festivals and carnivals have been done in the name of this poet yet he and his works are not introduced to the readers as much as it should have been, especially abroad. In this conference, three traits of this character will be focused on that are Mawlawi as a scholar and a knowledgeable person, Mawlawi as a poet, and paying attention to the biography of the poet, especially the letters and writings related to this poet.

AIMS OF THE CONFERENCE:

- Researching about Mawlawi's works in the fields of belief, speech and sophism.
